INTRODUCTION BY THE SLFA CHAIRMAN Elton Camphor,

Welcome to The SLFA Handbook, the essential guide to the rules and regulations of our league for 2026. The SLFA has the privilege and the responsibility of overseeing football for the SLFA League. We do so in an effective partnership with both the associated clubs and SAFA Johannesburg. We have setup these rules to protect those who participate in the SLFA League, and we want to approach the season with one set of values, which allows the game to be successfully and effectively played in facilities all over the North and South of Johannesburg.

We hope that The Handbook will become an invaluable companion to everyone who is involved in the SLFA League at all levels. We hope that every recipient of the 2026 Handbook, whatever your involvement in the game, will find it a helpful reference book during what we hope will be another exciting season.

3. If an abandoned match is to be replayed, any caution issued during that match shall be annulled. If the match is not to be replayed, the cautions received by the team responsible for causing the match to be abandoned are upheld; if both teams are responsible, all of the cautions are upheld.

2. The same applies if a person incurs several time sanctions of a similar type (two or more match suspensions, two or more bans etc.) as the result of one or several infringements.
